“To me, improving the lives of those affected by autism means supporting individual development and providing support to each individual Autistic and their family members. I see the stigma that still exists with the diagnosis and the misunderstandings that arise from lack of awareness and acceptance,” says Stefaniak Luther, “I am passionate about each individual living their best life and reaching their highest goals and achievements.”

The Autism Society of Greater Wisconsin’s mission is to create connections, empowering everyone in the Autism community with the resources needed to live fully. Founded in 1979, the Autism Society of Greater Wisconsin and its 5 local affiliates serve over two thousand members of the Autism community each year. It envisions a world where everyone in the Autism community is connected to the support they need, when they need it - including education, resources, and supports and services throughout the lifespan.
